

Chairman Ajit Pai's lack of leadership on strong net neutrality is an embarrassment to the FCC. The assertion that net neutrality inhibits broadband investment is a bold faced lie and Chairman Pai knows this. Verizon wireless told their shareholders exactly the opposite in 2014, that net neutrality does not impact on how they invest. Do not sell net neutrality out to the highest bidder. Have some integrity and decency.